

If it ain't broke, don't fix it. The freedom from pesky telemarketing phone calls which has been provided to me/us by the Indiana Attorney General's office has been a Godsend... Now we can enjoy a meal or an evening of television without the fear of unwanted interruption!!! Please, please, please don't change the law. Nothing gives those people the right to invade my privacy!!!